

MCCORMICK IN BIG WIN

Ben McCormick had a resounding victory in the Hannagan Bassett Financial Services Stableford event last Saturday. McCormick compiled 40 points to be the only one of the 42 players to better the CCR of 73. In second place on a count back was Matt Harker, who edged out John Wray. Both players scored 37 points.

John Brown and Darren Morfitt followed on 35 points. Graeme Jackson, Kalev Kutt, Ron Annandale and Alan Banks had 34 points.

Nearest the Pins were won by Trevor Lawrence and Darren Reeves. The Long Putt went to Alan Kent, with Danny Clayton winning the Long Drive.

Ashley Hollins enjoyed the opportunity to have the 'extra' shot in the Mulligans Scroungers last week. Hollins gained the result on the spin of the wheel from David Broadbent, Greg Moyle and Darren Morfitt, after all compiled 22 points. 21 points was also a log jam which included Steve Farquhar, Ray McGill, Ed Riley and Graham Williams.

Shelley Barker-May got the result over Betty White and Rhonda McGill, with all scoring 17 points in the ladies event.

Dean Rakich, Greg Little and Frank Battista won the novelties.

Ray Alp took top spot in the Veterans competition with 27 points. He had one to spare from Brian Banks with 26 points, followed by Jim Hine on 25 and Bryan Simpson on 24.

Novelties were won by Jim Hine and Brian Banks.

Clayton Flynn took out the Leisure Day event with 36 points, with a big gap to the others in a small field.

The club AGM is coming up on August 31st. Opportunities to join the committee are outlined on the club noticeboard.

This Saturday will be the Lotex Filters Stableford event.

Scroungers is on today with another Mulligans day. Leisure Day and Veterans to be played as usual.
