

TOONA AND TYLER WIN AGAIN

Rodney 'Toona' Simmonds and Jim Tyler scored a repeat victory in the TPS fourball last Saturday after having won the previous TPS trophy day in December. 'Toona' is making partner golf his specialty, having paired with Peter Ellery to win a month ago. This time the score of 48 produced a one point win over Jim Larsen and Ed Riley in the field of 25 pairs. Larsen and Riley deserve mention for an impressive finish with 27 points on the back nine. Jim Moyses and Steve Farquhar, along with Dave Czerniawsky and Ashley Stewart also collected trophies after both pairings had 46 points.

The club's youngest golfer, Ryan Dye, combined with Colin Giblett to tally 45 points for fifth position. Next were Mick Finlay and Phil Warburton and Hugh Annandale and Fred Bronicki on 44 points. Tony Barker-May and Dave Brunswick, Ron Crabbe and Alf Sanford and Ray Alp and Jim Hine rounded out the mentions with 43 points.

Nearest the pins went to Steve Farquhar, Barry Mahoney and Rod Choppers. Long putts were won by Greg Murray and Colin Giblett and the long drive was won by Stephen Edwards. In a rarity there were two eagles. Dave Czerniawsky and Bruce Roberts holed their second shots on six and eighteen respectively.

Ron Annandale took Scroungers on a spin after three players scored 19 points. Hugh Annandale and Ray Alp were the unlucky ones. Harry Hadfield, Dick Earl, Jim Larsen, Eric Annandale and Leigh Bernardi tallied 18 points.

Rhonda McGill with 17 points took out the Associates prize with Jeff Bebbington and 'Nutsy' taking the novelties.

Phil Warburton finished with 30 points, claiming top honours in the Vets competition last week. John Mumme and Ed Riley finished next on 28 points in the field of 20 players.

Novelties went to Jeff Crowe, Eric and Hugh Annandale and Ross Brody.

Country Week was a memorable one for the 18 locals who represented the club. Clayton Flynn, who has recently got engaged, finished with consecutive count back seconds at Kwinana and Nedlands to take the mantle of the best performed golfer, just always the bridesmaid. David Broadbent produced an amazing turnaround overnight to finish third at Nedlands, despite failing to gain casino entry when wearing the 'jacket'. Graham Williams and Trevor McCormick picked up a top four finish at Hartfield and Kwinana respectively. Brian Banks and Wayne Waywood also deserve a mention for their good result at Lakelands. Everyone has a hard luck tale to tell about why they just missed out on the top positions, particularly on difficult courses with differing playing conditions. Peter Ellery finished with one of the best after his spectacular bunker implosion on a Par 3 at Nedlands.

This Saturday the club will host a visiting group from Cottesloe Golf Club for their Stableford trophy day. A revised timesheet will operate with earlier times to accommodate the large contingent of cyclists who are camping over the weekend.

Sunday will be the annual Mixed Foursomes Championship.

Scroungers is on today, back to full handicaps and extra prizes on offer. Leisure Day and Veterans to be played as usual.
