

UDY 'S BEST IN A DECADE

Les Udy continued the run of terrific winning scores when he had 65 nett to claim the trophy in the B section of the Greg and Clayton Bell Stroke event last Saturday. Udy stated his round was his best round for a decade at presentations.

Barry Creighton looked likely to celebrate his birthday in the best possible style after his 66 looked to be the winning total until the last couple of groups came off the course. He was happy to settle for the runner up award.

The format of the day placed the field of 57 into two even handicap groups. The A section was won by David Laird with a score of 71. Runner up on a count back was Steve Farquhar with 72 from Graham Williams on the same score. Danny Clayton also won a count back from John Brown to take the Gross award with 84 off the stick.

The other players on the better scores included Jim Hine with 69, Troy Sheppard, Ed Riley, George Davis and Alf Sanford on 70, Bruce Miller 71, and a host of players on 73.

Nearest the Pins were won by Danny Clayton and Bruce Miller. Long Putts went to John Brown and Dean Rakich with Chris Stewart winning the long drive.

Scroungers last Thursday, broke from the usual format with all players tackling the back nine holes due to green renovation work on the front nine.

Mark Malatesta enjoyed the change with 22 points, enough to take out the event on a spin from first time player Lee Moon and Phil Warburton.

Brian Banks, Ed Riley, Barry Creighton and Dean Rakich all had 21 points, followed by Greg Bell, Sunny Kim and Bryan Simpson on 20 points.

Greg Little and Harry Hadfield finished at the top of a depleted field of Veterans with 31 points.

Novelties went to Ed Riley and Alan Kent.

This Saturday is an 18 hole 4BBB Stableford event for trophies sponsored by Greg Moyle, Chris and Ashley Stewart and Dean Crowe. There will be plenty on offer and the weather looks perfect for a great weekend.

Sunday will see the annual Dorsett Day, a mixed Yankee Foursomes event.

Scroungers is on today, Leisure Day and Veterans to be played as usual.
