

AK ON TOP AS 'DORFS' DOMINATE

Alan Kent returned a score of 7 up to take out the Auswop Par event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday.

'AK,' who has been out of the winners circle for some time, had a day out, with his 80 off the stick turning the clock back to the glory days of single figure golf.

Kent had inside knowledge of the trophies on offer, quizzing a member of the sponsor group, work colleague Ken Tate, during the week.

Having nominated his intention to win, he then obliged with a polished display.

Jeff Crowe, a fellow member of the 'Dorfs', took out the runner's up trophy with a good score of 5 up.

Ron Annandale took third on a count back in the trio of golfers who recorded 4 up. Another 'Dorf', Phil Warburton and Brian Banks were the others.

Eric Annandale, Jan Van Vollenstee and Graham Williams had 3 up, Steve Wallace and Barry Mahony 2 up followed by John Brown, Ian Tweedie, Jim Lee and Dick Earl on 1 up.

Eileen Riley had a good score of 4 up to claim the ladies section from Jill Burgess on 3 up. Nancy Lynn and Betty White also had square.

10 novelties were put on by the sponsors to keep everyone on their toes during their rounds.

One of the club's 'Gentlemen', Brian Banks, proved too good for the opposition in the Scroungers competition last Thursday. Banks tallied 22 points for a clear win over Graham Williams and Ryan Dye, who had 20 points.

Alan Kent, Dave Brunswick, George Davis and Ian Shannon also were rewarded with 19 points in the field of 38 players. Paul Piavanini had a good score of 38 strokes for the best gross, with novelties going to Chris Connell and Fred Bronickis.

Des Hebb scored a well deserved victory in the 14 hole Veterans competition last week with 32 points. Brian Banks took second spot on 30 points, followed by Bryan Simpson and Eric Annandale who both had 27 points.

David Broadbent returned 39 points to take out Leisure Day ahead of the big hitting Greg Martin with 38 points.

Scroungers will be on as normal today. Saturday is an 18 Hole Stableford event for the Outdoor World trophies.

On Monday, Australia Day, an 18 Hole Stableford will be held for a Club Trophy. Players can play all day with an abridged timesheet up for afternoon players.

A 9 Hole Sunday event will be on with Leisure Day and Veterans played as usual on Tuesday.
