

LARSEN CANES THE FIELD ON PRINCIPALS DAY

Jim Larsen produced a dominant display to post 46 points to win the annual Primary Principals Stableford event at the Collie Golf club last Saturday. Larsen had his first win after joining the club on the same trophy day last year, so will be looking for a hat trick in 2010. The winner was one of the fortunate few who played early, as the afternoon players were greeted by freshening winds, making scoring more difficult.

Ron Annandale showed a liking for the windy conditions, returning 41 points to claim the runner up trophy. Colin Giblett got the nod in a three way count back for third over Boyup Brook club captain Greg Hales and Collie Eagles new recruit, Alex Tweedie, all with 39 points apiece. Wayne Waywood was alone on 38 points

Greg Bell picked up the Gross trophy for the day after 79 off the stick. He was joined in the vouchers for 37 points by Ian Tweedie, G O'Neill, Des Hebb, Graeme Jackson, Dean Crowe, Bryan Simpson, Mick Finlay and Barry Creighton.

Annette Atherton played good golf to return 39 points and claim the ladies section from Michelle Tate and Betty White on 33 points.

18 novelties and stayers nest prizes were provided by the Principals, with many requiring certain criteria relating to school days. This kept the players amused and interested throughout the day. In all 78 players took part, the best field for some time.

Lou Lukowiak was rewarded for all his hard work and practice, winning the Scroungers competition last Thursday with 23 points. Darren Morfitt and John Brown, who also returned the best gross, were relegated to the minor placings on a spin after returning the same score. Phil Warbuton and Michael Stocks had 22 points, followed by Ian Annandale on 21 points and Des Hebb with 20 points.

Nancy Lynn topped the ladies list on 19 points.

Dave Brunswick returned to the winners list, scoring 30 points for a narrow victory in the 14 hole Veterans competition. Ed Riley and Des Hebb took second and third respectively on 29 points, followed by Jim Moyses and Ray Alp on 28 points.

Last week's Leisure Day field was a bare minimum 5 players over the day. Dean Rakich, showing the benefit of his current relaxed lifestyle, had plenty to spare with his 42 points pushing the handicap back to single figures.

Neil Kennedy took the honours, on a count back, from Judy Italiano after both had scored 21 points in the nine hole Scroungers event played on Sunday.

Deb Van Vollenstee on 20, Graham Williams and Joe Italiano, both 19 points, also did well in the field of 18.

Scroungers will be on as normal today. Saturday is an 18 Hole Stableford event for the Irrigation Cup, an annual event sponsored by Rob Ferris. A 9 Hole Sunday event will be on with Leisure Day and Veterans played as usual on Tuesday.
