

BRONICKIS TRAIN ROLLS ON

The Fred Bronickis train rolled on when 'Super Fred' steamrolled his way to another victory in the Malatesta Brothers Par event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Bronickis, who has now captured three of the last four major weekend events, posted a score of 5 up, slashing his handicap further and just pipping Mick Finlay. Finlay, fresh from a testing time at The Cut recently, found his form to take the runner up trophy on 4 up.

Ian Stewart and Jim Larsen both recorded 3 up to be in the top four, followed by Bryan Simpson and Alex Tweedie on 2 up, Joe Italiano, Rory Cowan and Alan Banks with 1 up, and rounding out the vouchers a host of players on square. This group included Greg Moyle, Eric Annandale, Jim Hine, Kalev Kutt and Ron Crabbe.

Nearest the pins went to Ian Tweedie, Neil Motion and Fred Bronickis. The long putt was claimed by Barry Creighton and the long drive was won by Steven Ireland.

Betty White claimed another summer season win, playing good golf to return 1 up to win the ladies section from Michelle Tate on 1 down.

Jim Moyses made it a double of mid week wins, topping the list in Scroungers on Thursday. Moyses tallied 21 points for a narrow victory over a pair of players on 20 points. Colin Sussex gained the benefit of the spin for second, followed by Alan Banks in third place. Les McGill on 19 points and John Wray, Michael Daley, Colin Naysmith and Ernie Sullivan on 18 points, finalised the awards.

Nancy Lynn topped the ladies list on 18 points ahead of Kaye Farquhar with 16 points.

Jim Moyses went back to back, scoring 32 points for a another victory in the 14 hole Veterans competition. Alf Sanford took second after out-spinning Frank Battista. Both players finished on 30 points, followed by Alan Banks, Alan Davies, Phil Warburton and Brian Banks on 26 points.

Greg 'Noddy' Moyle, claimed his first victory for a while with 38 points in the Leisure Day competition last week. Noddy puts a lot of time into his golfing affairs and was clearly the best club ambassador during the recent expedition to The Cut. Jim Larsen got a mention with 35 points in the small field of 7 players.

Ben Sweeney, from Golf Downunder, will be holding a Demo day from approximately 11 am this Saturday on the practice tee. The latest golf equipment will be on show for members to try.

The annual Riverside weekend is only two weeks away. Members should ensure they get their nominations in before the March 13 deadline.

Scroungers will be on as normal today. Saturday is an 18 Hole Stableford event for the Golf Downunder trophy. A 9 Hole competition will be played on Sunday. Leisure Day and Veterans golf will be on as usual on Tuesday.
