

BOYUP BROOK VISITOR SNATCHES MAFIA CUP

A Boyup Brook golfer, playing in his first competition on the course, took the Mafia Cup Stableford event played at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Maurice Louisson recorded a healthy 25 points on the closing nine holes to easily win a count back from his compatriot David Cowan and locals Alan Banks and Mat Harker. All four players returned the modest total of 39 points in an excellent field of 73.

Frank Battista was head and shoulders above the 'Mafia' players with 38 points followed by Wayne Waywood, Scott Tweedie, Dave Brunswick and Mark Sugget on 37 points. Also getting a mention for 36 points were the group of John Brown, Peter Wutchak, Des Hebb, Alf Sanford, Chris Mead and Graham Williams.

The sponsors added to the event with some appropriate giveaways at presentations. Nearest the pins went to Bev Moyses, Ross Davidson and Mike Daley. Long putts were claimed by Dick Earl, Alan Banks, Clive Pullan, John Kenna and Mat Harker and the long drive was won by Mark Sugget.

Rhonda McGill finished at the head of the 11 strong field in the ladies section with 36 points. Bev Moyses (35) along with Betty White on 34 points also got a mention.

***

Mike Daley scored a double in Scroungers last Thursday with his 37 strokes for 22 points easily good enough for nett and gross honours. He will be hoping to take that form into this week's big event. Ray Cooper appears to be heading in the right direction with a double mention in the notes this week, unusually for his golfing prowess. 'Coops' made it a quinella for the Solstice group when he took the spin for second from Jim Larsen, Eric Annandale, Greg Little and Graham Williams. All had 20 points.

Betty White topped the ladies list with 16 points, from Bev Moyses on 14 points.

***

Neil McDonald is pleased to be back on the golf course after an injury enforced spell and topped the depleted list of Veterans last week. With many of the regulars away in a big Busselton event he managed 18 points for a comfortable win.

***

Jim Lee is another regular visitor and the Narrogin golfer showed up the locals in the Leisure Day competition to win with 36 points. Jim Larsen and Dave Czerniawsky made the top three with 35 points apiece.

***

Last Sunday's nine hole Scroungers attracted 20 players with the winner being Brett Smith on a count back from Ken Smallwood after both finished with 21 points. Ray Cooper was third with 20 points followed by Mark Sugget and John Brown on 19 points.

***

The annual Riverside tournament is on this Saturday and Sunday. The course will be closed to other players. The event has attracted 156 nominations from 24 clubs. Most notably, there are 24 players from Pinjarra and 20 from Joondalup. The weekend will be preceded by the Dorsett Family sponsored fourball on Friday which also has a near capacity field.

***

Scroungers will be on as normal today. Leisure Day and Veterans golf will be on as usual on Tuesday.