

TWEEDIE WINS AGAIN

Alex Tweedie continued the good run of Boyup Brook players when he picked up his second win of the year in the Healy Plumbing Par event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Tweedie has progressively improved his game over summer and his score of 6 up was good enough for a two hole victory. A count back was required to determine the runner up with Scott Tweedie, the winner's brother, getting the honour over David Broadbent and Phil Warburton. All three returned a score of 4 up.

Frank Battista, Chris Mead, Alf Sanford and Joe Italiano had 3 up followed by Ian Tweedie, Alan Banks, George Davis, Ray Alp, Dave Brunswick and Greg Little who played to the CCR with 2 up.

Nancy Lynn recorded an impressive 6 up to take the ladies event from Betty White on 3 up.

Nearest the pins were won by Tim Mead, Scott Tweedie and George Davis. Long Putts went to Ron Annandale and Pat Booth with the long drive going to Greg Martin.

Wayne Waywood tallied 21 points to sit alone at the top of the Scroungers leaderboard last Thursday. Phil Warburton was next with 20 points followed by Leigh Bernardi, Jim Lee, Bryan Simpson, Jeff Crowe, Denis Cocker and Phil Eldridge on 19 points.

Shelley Barker-May topped the ladies list with 20 points, from Leslie Motion on 19 points.

Brian Banks enjoyed the alteration to the normal Vets format, due green renovations, recording 20 points in 9 holes for a clear win. Bryan Simpson and Dick Earl were next on 17 points.

Last Sunday's nine hole Scroungers had a reduced field of only 6 players with the winner being Jan Van Vollenstee on 21 points. Judy Italiano tallied 18 points to get a mention for the ladies.

Scroungers will be on as normal today. Saturday will be an 18 hole Stableford for the Bridgestone Tyres trophy. A 9 Hole competition will be played on Sunday.

Leisure Day and Veterans golf will be on as usual on Tuesday.
