

BRUNSWICK TAKES EASTER EVENT

David Brunswick made the most of his opportunities to win the Stableford event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Brunswick relished the recently cored greens, scoring 42 points to record a narrow win in the good field of 61 players. Mark Sugget had a consistent round to tie with Veteran Bryan Simpson on 41 points. Sugget got the nod for the runner up prize on a count back.

David Cowan looked like celebrating Easter in style with a blazing 25 points on the front nine but lost his way over the concluding holes, finishing with 40 points and fourth place. George Davis and Barry Creighton were next with 39 points followed by Dean Rakich and David Broadbent on 38 points.

The Captain paid out on 37 points, with the fortunate golfers being Alf Sanford, Chris Lee Steere, John Kenna, Eric Annandale, Greg Moyle and Lou Lukowiak.

Dot Lawrence headed the ladies event with a very tidy 41 points.

Nearest the pins went to Dave Brunswick, Denis Cocker and John Kenna. The long putts were claimed by Rob Roth and Hugh Annandale and Ash Hollins showed off his new driver with a booming long drive.

***

John Wray started the winter Scroungers season in style with his tally of 22 points good enough for gross and nett honours. Kalev Kutt again produced a good 9 holes for 21 points followed by Brian Banks on 20 points.

A host of players were rewarded for 19 points with the list including Mat Harker, Peter Ellery, Dave Brunswick, Neil Motion, John Michalak, Jim Hine, Kevin Ireland and Denis Cocker.

***

Des Hebb took the Vets competition last week with 29 points in the 14 hole competition. Hebb survived a three way spin to claim the win from Hugh Annandale and George Davis. John Wray with 27 points was next followed by Harry Hadfield on 26 points.

***

Kalev Kutt was always in control for honours in the Leisure Day competition last week. After 24 points on the first side he eased down to total 38 points recording a clear win from Dean Rakich with 36 points.

***

Easter Sunday was no hindrance for those who wanted to have a hit in the 9 hole Scroungers event. 'Big Col' Naysmith performed better than his namesake in the Derby the day before scoring 22 points for a clear margin over Trevor McCormick and Deb Van Vollenstee on 19 points. 17 players took part with Joe Italiano, Jan Van Vollenstee, Mark McCormick and Mick Finlay playing to their handicap with 18 points apiece.

***