

BROWN EXCELS IN LIFE MEMBER TROPHY WIN

John Brown made a one act affair of the Life Members Par event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Brown's round, and score of plus 10, was referred to as 'almost perfection' by fellow playing partner and Life Member representative Trevor Lawrence, despite being on the wrong side of the wagers on the day.

Eric Annandale returned plus 5 to take the runner up award with Mat Harker winning a count back for third from Ian Tweedie on a score of plus 4.

Ken Woods showed a return to form, making the top five for the first time in quite a while on plus 3. He was followed by Clayton Flynn, Bryan Simpson, Clive Pullan, Ron Annandale and WAGC visitor Ron Hoyer on plus 2.

Shelley 'Hole in One' Barker-May topped off her memorable week with a count back win in the ladies event on a score of minus 2. Rhonda McGill was runner up with the same total.

Nearest the pins went to Mark McCormick, Bev Moyses and Shelley Barker-May. The long putts were claimed by Mat Harker and Ian Stewart and Alex Tweedie won yet another long drive.

*******

George Davis had every reason to celebrate after amassing 24 points to clearly win Scroungers last week. Rod Simmonds was next with 21 points followed by Greg Moyle and Ed Riley on 20 points.

Players were rewarded for 19 points with the list including Fred Bronickis, Kalev Kutt, John Wray, Eric Annandale and Jim Tyler.

Shelley Barker-May made it a double with a win in the ladies section with a score of 20 points.

*******

Hugh Annandale took the Vets competition last week with 32 points in the 14 hole competition. Steve Farquhar was second on 29 points followed by Harry Hadfield and Alf Sanford on 28 points.

*******

Kalev Kutt made it consecutive victories in the Leisure Day competition last week. Kutt scored 38 points and always looked in control despite a late rally by Dean Rakich, who settled for second again on 35 points.

*******

Mick Finlay was rewarded for his commitment to the Sunday Scroungers competition, returning 21 points to win from Brett Smith on 19 points. Travis Cooper is a quick improver and finished just behind the place getters in the field on 9 players.