

ELLERY DOMINATES DIGGERS DAY

Peter Ellery proved far too good for the opposition on Anzac Day, taking out the Diggers Day Stableford at the Collie Golf Club with 45 points. Ellery was three points clear of Mat Harker on 42 points and the pair of Trevor Lawrence and Rod Miller who scored 40 points apiece. The event attracted a great field of 83 players in what was the last fixture of the summer season.

Neil Motion, Rob Sherwood, Ian Tweedie, David Laird and Clive Pullan were next on 39 points, followed by Ron Crabbe and Chris Stewart with 38 points. In the 'Diggers' section, Dave Brunswick's 38 points bagged him his second trophy in the last fortnight. Trophy donor John Wray also had 38 points to claim the right to have his name placed on the Diggers shovel. Ed Riley was next with 37 points.

Nearest the pins went to Denis Cocker, Greg Bell, Clive Pullan and Ed Riley. The long putts were claimed by Ash Stewart, Des Hebb and Greg Hales. Barry McGill took out the long drive with Jay Robinson rewarded for a chip in on 17.

Brian Banks and Peter Ellery needed a spin to be separated in the Scroungers event last Thursday after both returned 21 points. Banks got the verdict with Ellery spurred on for his Saturday success. Des Hebb, Keith Russell, Graham Williams, Dean Rakich and John Mumme were all rewarded for 20 points, while Nancy Lynn got the benefit of a spin to win the ladies section with a score of 18 points.
