

WUTCHAK STARTS CHAMPIONSHIP IN STYLE

Peter Wutchak carved up the course with surgeonlike precision to easily win the Collie Freight Lines stroke round, the first of the club championships, played at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Wutchak had 77 off the stick for 65 nett to clearly eclipse the field of 55 players.

Defending champion Chris Stewart is tied for the lead after also returning a 77. Greg Bell and Leon Moran with rounds of 80 and Mat Harker with 81 complete the top five.

Steve Wallace and Ken Smallwood were second and third on the day with 70 nett. Dave Brunswick continued his consistent form with 71. Dean Rakich, Jim Moyses, Des Hebb and Mike Daley all played to the CCR with 72 and Greg Bell, David Laird, Chris Stewart and Mat Harker were rewarded for their score of 73 nett.

Nearest the pins went to Rob Sherwood, Des Hebb and Scott Tweedie. The long putts were claimed by Greg Martin and Graham Williams. 'Captain Rak' claimed another long drive.

Bruce Miller, showing no signs of a premiership hangover, scored 23 points to win the Scroungers event last Thursday. John Brown, Jim Moyses and Alex Bayley all had 22 points to be one point short of the winner.

Jeff Crowe, Neil Motion and Tony Barker-May returned 21 points to be voucher recipients on a high scoring day.

Shelley Barker-May took out the ladies section with a score of 21 points.

Frank Battista took the Vets competition last week with 31 points in the 14 hole competition. Steve Farquhar was relegated to second on a spin, yet again, after returning the same score. Alan Banks was next with 30 points followed by Harry Hadfield with 28 and Eric Annandale and Bryan Simpson on 27 points.

Jaydon Ellery won the Leisure Day competition last week with 40 points. Jim Lee got a reward for his 35 points in the field of 9 players.

Mothers Day kept the numbers down to seven players for Sunday Scroungers. Judy Italiano and Kalev Kutt shared the spoils after 20 points apiece. Jan and Deb Van Vollenstee returned 19 points each.

This Saturday is a 4BBB Stableford for the Challenge Chemicals trophies. A Mulligans novelty event will be on for Scroungers today, Vets and Leisure Day will be held on Tuesday and Sunday Scroungers will be on as usual.
