

TWO T'S TEAM UP FOR CHALLENGE VICTORY

Trevor McCormick and Tom Chappell paired up to claim the Challenge Chemicals fourball at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. The two T's recorded 49 points to snatch victory over Wayne Waywood and course superintendent Darren Morfitt, by one point, in the field of 30 pairs.

Rob Cavanagh and George Davis made a late surge to eclipse their playing partners Ashley Stewart and Mat Harker to take third money after returning 47 and 46 points respectively.

There was a gap back to teams on 43 points which included the wily Veteran Phil Warburton and partner Neil McDonald along with Ken Smallwood and Dean Rakich. An extensive list of pairs on 42 points were rewarded for their efforts on the day. One of the notable teams in this group were Royal Fremantle visitors, Don Peters and Ron Marlborough, who kept the local members entertained with a combination of magic tricks and rollicking yarns.

Nearest the pins went to Laurie Sullivan, Greg Martin and Phil Eldridge. The long putts were claimed by Steve Farquhar, Neil McDonald, Ash Stewart and Jim Moyses. Doug Ingraham broke the captain's winning sequence to claim the long drive.

Phil Eldridge enjoyed the forgiving nature of the Mulligans event held for Scroungers last Thursday. Eldridge was 'square with the card,' amassing 26 points to repeat his impressive victory from the fortnight before.

George Dorozenko returned his best effort for some time to be the unlucky runner up with 25 points. Ray Alp, Des Hebb and George Davis were next on 24 points followed by Greg Martin on 23 points and then Clayton Flynn, Jeff Crowe, Greg Moyle, Ray McGill, Alex Bayley and Mark Malatesta who all posted 22 points in the high scoring event, which attracted 62 players.

Shelley Barker-May took out the ladies section for the second week running with a score of 23 points.

Phil Warburton took the Vets competition last week with 33 points in the 14 hole competition. Ray Alp was next with 28 points followed by Des Hebb on 27 points.

Jim Lee won the Leisure Day competition last week with 37 points. Dean Rakich got a reward for his 36 points in the field of 10 players.

This Saturday is an 18 hole Par event for the Subway trophies. The mixed foursomes championship is scheduled for Sunday. Players should check for confirmation details regarding this event.

Scroungers will be on today. Vets and Leisure Day will be held on Tuesday.
