

HINE TAKES 'PREMIER' POSITION

Jim Hine recorded his second win for the year, beating a field of 57 players to take out the Premier Hotel Stableford event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Hine, a very consistent golfer, scored 40 points to take the trophy ahead of fellow Veteran Hugh Annandale, who performed well to tally 39 points.

Chris Stewart had his customary good score to be third on 38 points followed by Mark McCormick with 37 and six players on 36 points. This group included Dave Czerniawski, Clive Pullan, Tony Barker-May, John Brown, Ash Stewart and Joe Italiano.

Nearest the pins went to Barry Creighton, Greg Martin and Jan Van Vollenstee. The long putts were claimed by Greg Moyle and Dick Earl. Darren Morfitt hooped one into the narrow landing area down the 15th fairway to win the long drive.

Ian Annandale, who appreciated the 'dry' conditions on offer for Scroungers last Thursday, launched a birdie blitz to tally 22 points and then win the spin over fellow Solstice member Wayne Waywood to take the event.

Alan Kent, on the comeback trail after shoulder surgery, showed a glimpse of form to be third with 19 points. Alex Bayley, Phil Warburton, Alan Banks and Hugh Annandale were the others to be rewarded with 18 points apiece.

Ed Riley took the Vets competition last week with 27 points in the 14 hole competition. Ray Alp and Les Udy were next with 25 points.

Greg 'Noddy' Moyle won the Leisure Day competition last week with 36 points. Dean Rakich pushed the winner all the way to a lower handicap, finishing on 35 points.

Jim Lee took advantage of the long weekend, travelling over from Narrogin to win the sweepstakes event on Monday. Lee had 37 points to pip Trevor Lawrence by one point with 'Trizzie' returning his customary 36 points.

This Saturday is the Mens Foursomes Championship over 18 holes. The book will be out for 9 hole Sunday Scroungers.

Scroungers will be on today. Vets and Leisure Day will be held on Tuesday.
