

DALEY MOVES INTO TOP GEAR

Michael Daley continued his impeccable recent form, recording a good win in the Collie Mail Stroke event on Saturday. Daley was able to live up to his nickname, 'The Wand', weaving his magic for a nett score of 68 after having 80 off the stick. The winner, who went close to victory in last week's event, suffered the indignity of winning the Thursday 'Jacket,' but bounced back in style to snare the major prize and in the process move into the lead in the winter season consistency award.

Greg 'Noddy' Moyle, fresh after a work enforced spell, snatched the runner up trophy on a count back from a trio of other players, with all scoring 69 nett. Steve Farquhar, John Brown and Frank Battista made up the top five.

Clayton Flynn and Leon Moran with 70, Jim Moyses with 71 as well as Tom Chappell, Chris Stewart and George Davis with 72 rounded out the vouchers.

Current club champion, Chris Stewart, had another round of 76 to maintain his hold on the crown. Leon Moran had his best score for the championships, also having 76, but has a three stroke margin to overcome over the remaining two rounds. John Brown and Greg Bell are leading the Veterans section after three rounds.

Nearest the Pins were won by Ken Smallwood, Ian Stewart and Greg Bell. Long Putts went to Kevin Ireland and Neil McDonald with Jan Van Vollenstee winning the long drive.

Ian Shannon reaped the benefits of his improving mobility, returning to the winners list with 22 points in Scroungers last Thursday. 'Shanks' should be a major force in the coming weeks once he has two good legs. Rob Roth continues to improve, making it into the upper echelon of the 56 players with 20 points for second place. Wayne Waywood, Rod Simmonds, Ed Riley, Jeff Crowe, Steve Farquhar and Alan Banks all had 19 points.

Betty White tallied 18 points to be best of the Associates.

Brian Banks, Jeff Crowe and Kevin Ireland won the novelties.
