

Golf Notes for the week ending Sunday 2 August 2009

CHRIS STEWART ALL CLASS

Chris Stewart showed why he is rated the best golfer in the club, posting a one over par round of 73 to tally 39 Stableford points, and in the process, take out the Hannagan Bassett sponsored event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. The current club champion, who will be hard to topple again this season, joins Mike Daley at the top of the consistency award on 17 points each. 56 players competed in the event with the CCR being 73.

Greg Bell returned to his best form, taking the runner up trophy after his polished round resulted in a total of 37 points. John Brown gained third place on count back from Dave Czerniawsky and Steven Ireland, with all tallying 36 points.

Tony Barker-May, Ian Annandale, Eric Annandale, Jay Robinson and Allan Rolfe were next on 35 points. Michael Dowling, Graham Williams, Mike Daley, Kevin Ireland, Ron Annandale and Ron Crabbe rounded out the vouchers with 34 points apiece.

Nearest the Pins were won by Rob Cavanagh and Greg Bell. Long Putts went to Alan Banks and Ron Crabbe with Greg Martin winning the long drive.
