

BARKER-MAY & BRUNSWICK BEST - BARELY

Tony Barker-May and David Brunswick emerged as the top pair in last Saturday's TPS fourball event at the Collie Golf Club. The duo have been a fixture in many team events, with a number of top placings. On this occasion they returned 44 points, a score that could not be bettered by the other 19 pairs on a difficult scoring day.

John Wray and David Laird were able to match the eventual winner's score, but were relegated to second on count back by virtue of one fewer point on the back nine. David and Gerard Pullan took third place on a score of 43 points.

Kalev Kutt and Jay Robinson along with Jim Moyses and Steve Farquhar, John Michalak and Neil Motion and finally Steven Ireland and Ian Annandale were bunched on 41 points apiece. Ed Riley and Ron Annandale finalised proceedings with 40 points.

Nearest the pins were won by Kalev Kutt, David Laird and Denis Cocker. Ian Stewart and Dave Brunswick won the long putts with Mat Harker picking up the long drive.

Troy 'Dog' Sheppard was in a buoyant mood after his 18 points was enough to eclipse the 30 man field in Scroungers last Thursday.

The weather played its part in reducing the number of participants, with a trio of Solstice members deciding a warm, dry environment had more attraction than the golf course.

All will be required to supply a 'please explain note' to the President before this Thursday's round.

Alan Davies, Peter Gray, Neil Motion and Peter Walsh were rewarded for their commitment with 16 points.

Greg Bell, 'Dog' and Peter Gray won the novelties.

Eric Annandale kept his hot streak going when he tallied 31 points to win the Veterans 14 hole competition last week.

There was a three point margin back to Alan Banks and Bryan Simpson, who both had 28 points.

Jim Lee continued his good run with 38 points easily enough for victory in the Leisure Day competition last week.

Despite having good numbers with 14 players, the next best score was returned by Clayton Flynn on 35 points.

This Saturday is the Collie Mowers 'n' More 18 hole Stroke event. It is also the fourth round of the club championships.

Scroungers is on today. Vets and Leisure Day will be held on Tuesday.
