

'OLD FIRM' TAKES FOURBALL CROWN

Jim Moyses and Steve Farquhar demonstrated their uncanny knack of, 'putting it together as a team' to take out the Bernardi Brothers' fourball event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. The dynamic duo shared the scoring on their way to 45 points and subsequent victory on a count back. Farquhar has been an unlucky runner up twice this season, with Saturday's result a just reward for his consistency.

A sensational birdie by Brett Smith on the difficult fifth hole, which reaped five points alone, lifted he and partner Jay Robinson to a 45 point total and second place. Bunbury visitors D Lamont and G Baker also tallied 45 to make up the top three.

26 pairs took part in the event. Others to do well included Mat Harker and Chris Bliss on 44 points, Ed Riley and Des Hebb, Danny Clayton and Kalev Kutt as well as A Fazey and C Counon who all had 42 points. Phil Warburton and Mick Finlay, Clive Pullan and Ian Stewart, Tom Chappell and Ryan Dye and lastly Ken Smallwood and Ross Brody rounded out the awards with 41 points each.

Novelties on all holes maintained the field's interest. Neil Motion made sure of a mention with a classic effort on the 6th hole. Playing partner John Michalak vibrantly recounted Neil's 'monster' drive to the entire clubhouse.

Tony Barker-May took top spot in Scroungers last week with 21 points. The 'webmaster' had a one point margin from Ron Annandale and L Heydon on 20 points. Talented youngster Ryan Dye was once again in the top scores with 19 points along with John Brown and Rob Roth.

Ross Davidson, Clive Pullan, Brian Banks, Ian Shannon and Andrew Shea were all rewarded for 18 points.

Gwen Tanian earned a win on the spin in the ladies event.

Neil Motion, Dick Earl and Ed Riley won the novelties.

Des Hebb took top spot in the Vets 14 hole competition last week. Hebb returned 28 points to win from Ken Smallwood on 27 points and Alf Sanford with 26 points.

Greg Martin totalled 40 points for a narrow win in the Leisure Day competition last week. Steve 'Hammer' Wallace also did well with 39 points in the six man field.

This Saturday is an 18 stableford event. Members John Brown, Trevor and Ben McCormick and Tom Chappell are the sponsors.

The Smallwood Pick is the game theme for Scroungers today. Vets and Leisure Day will be held on Tuesday.
