

CHRIS STEWART'S SUB PAR ROUND A WINNER

Chris Stewart played meticulous golf to return a one under par round of 71 in last Saturday's Cottesloe Golf Club sponsored event at the Collie Golf Club. The current club champion compiled 41 points for a one point win. Stewart's feat reduced his handicap to 3 and increased his lead in the winter season consistency award.

Trevor 'Trizzie' Lawrence, the sponsor of the consistency award, showed he is quickly coming to grips with new clubs, posting a super round of 40 points to win the runner up trophy. With a visit to Cottesloe awaiting the top two, the club is fortunate that 'true' gentlemen have won the honour. 'Trizzie' will just need to put some work into getting off the tee on the Par 3's.

Geoff Lee made the most of his first competitive round since joining the club with a solid score of 38 points. Rob Sherwood also found some good form to return 37 points for fourth position.

The remainder of the field of 55 players found the conditions more difficult. Graham Williams, Jan Van Vollenstee, Jim Moyses and Eric Annandale played to the CCR with 35 points. Tom Chappell, Des Hebb, Clayton Flynn and Barry Stewart rounded out the vouchers with 34 points.

Nearest the pins went to Dave Czerniawsky, Rob Sherwood and Geoff Lee. Rod Simmonds and Les McGill won the long putts. Chris Stewart won the longest drive on his way to victory.

Kirk McNaughton had a victory in last week's Scroungers event. McNaughton, a new member, returned 21 points to win from Michael Stocks and Darren Morfitt on 20 points. Greg White with 19 points and Neil Motion, 18 points, also got a mention.

Alf Sanford took top spot in the Vets 14 hole competition last week. Sanford returned 28 points to win from Dave Brunswick on 27 points and Ed Riley and Bryan Simpson with 26 points apiece.

Dean Rakich with 37 points was the best of a small Leisure Day field last week. 'Captain Rak' outlasted David Laird, whose 34 points was next best.

All members are reminded that the postponed mixed foursomes championship has been rescheduled for Sunday October 11. A nomination sheet is on the noticeboard.

This Saturday is an 18 Stableford event. Lotex Filters is the sponsor.

Scroungers is on today. Vets and Leisure Day will be held on Tuesday.
