

Golf Notes for the week ending Sunday 11 October 2009

GRANDFATHER'S CUP GOES TO RAY ALP

Ray Alp emerged the winner of the annual Grandfather's Cup at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Alp totalled 38 points to edge out Ron Annandale in a count back. 49 players competed in the Collie Metal Fabrication sponsored event, with the CCR being 70.

Tony Barker-May gained a quick return with his new clubs, posting 40 points to win the prize for the 'Others'. Ken Smallwood also tallied 40 points, but as with the Grandfather's cup, was relegated to second on a count back.

Promising junior Ryan Dye finished one point behind on 39 points along with David Laird. Alan Kent and Dave Brunswick were next with 37 points. They were followed by Jim Moyses and Leon Moran with 36 points and Frank Battista, Phil Eldridge, Joe Italiano and Neil McDonald on 35 points.

Nearest the pins went to Greg Moyle, Frank Battista and David Laird. Dean Rakich and Tony Barker-May won the long putts and Leon Moran took the long drive.

Ron Crabbe and Bev Moyses combined well to win the mixed foursomes championship on Sunday. The annual event drew 11 couples prepared to take on the demanding 27 hole event where the word 'sorry' gets a work out.

The winners score of 125 resulted in a comfortable win but runners up Steve and Kaye Farquhar kept the pressure on the winners all day. The Farquhars finished on 133 ahead of Ken and Dion Smallwood on 134 and Ron and Lorraine Annandale on 140.

Ken and Dion Smallwood took out the Nett section trophy with the excellent score of 103.25. Mike Daley and June Pike had 112 for runner up in the Nett.

Hugh Annandale had a victory in last week's Scroungers event. Annandale scored 21 points to win from Peter Gray and Mike Daley on 20 points. Ed Riley with 19 points along with Peter Walsh, Alan Banks, Des Hebb, Fred Bronickis and Mick Finlay on 18 points also got a mention.

Peter Walsh was 'red hot' in the Vets 14 hole competition last week. Walsh returned 37 points to win from Brian Simpson on 32 points. Jeff Crowe was next on 29 points.

Jan Van Vollenstee made a rare midweek appearance to win the Leisure Day competition last week. 'The Doc' tallied 37 points to win from Denis Cocker on 33 points.

David Broadbent was the only Collie player to win an individual trophy at the recent Country Week competition. Broadbent finished third at Mosman Park on Thursday with 71 in the Stroke event. Troy Sheppard and Dean Rakich teamed to take the runner up trophy in Tuesday's Fourball event at Wanneroo.