

YOUNG DYE CRACKS IT FOR CHRISTMAS

14 year old junior, Ryan Dye, broke through for a well deserved first victory in the Keith Martin sponsored Stableford event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. The club's youngest handicapped member amassed 44 points, without a wipe on his card, to realise his potential and record a two point win in the last fixture before Christmas.

Brian Banks finished like a train with 25 points on his second nine, but failed by a couple of points to be runner up on 42. Trevor Lawrence had a good round to be third on 40 points.

The boys from Boyup Brook, Alex Tweedie and Simon Purse made up the top five on 39 points each.

Ross Brody, Des Hebb and Dean Rakich matched the CCR on 38 points, followed by Phil Warburton, Leon Moran, Ray Alp and Alan Kent on 37 points in the field of 61 men.

Shelley Barker-May won her second summer event after 40 points. Bev Moyses and Vicki Graham were right on her tail with 39 points apiece.

Bev Moyses, Mat Harker and Rod Simmonds won nearest to the pins. Skinny Russell and John Kenna took the long putts and Jan Van Vollenstee won the long drive.

Greg Martin and Ian Shannon scored an impressive 24 points to lead the field in last week's Scroungers event. Martin got the verdict on the spin of the wheel. Ron Annandale had the best gross on his way to 21 points, a score matched by Neil McDonald.

Stephen Farquhar, Warren Harrison Brown and Ross Brody all had 20 points followed by John Mumme, Peter Gray and Ed Riley on 19 points each.

Alan Kent, John Mumme and Clive Fimiston won the novelties.

Rhonda McGill was the best of a depleted Associates field with 13 points.

A fourball was played for some variety in the Veterans 14 Hole competition last week. Steve Farquhar and Dick Earl teamed to post 39 points to score the win. Neil McDonald and Des Hebb also returned a healthy 37 points to be second. Peter Gray and Alf Sanford were next on 35 points.

Jim Larsen made it back to back wins in the Leisure Day competition last week. Larsen returned 39 points to come out on top over Ray Cooper on 38 points.

Warm weather restricted the Sunday Scroungers field to 7 players with Trevor Lawrence repeating the dose from Saturday with 20 points to win the day from Joe Italiano on 19 points.

Xmas Eve Scroungers is on today. For keen club members, golf will be played on all three days of the weekend. Saturday will be the Showcase Jewellers Par event, Sunday Scroungers and then a sweepstakes Stableford on the Boxing Day public holiday Monday. Leisure Day and Veterans will be on Tuesday as normal.
