

MORAN SIZZLES IN SUB PAR ROUND

Leon Moran produced a sensational sub par round to win the Blue Dolphin Caravan Park Stableford competition held at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Moran, as a low handicapper, finds it difficult to feature in nett trophy wins, but his prize for 42 points, after 71 off the stick, includes accommodation at the Shark Bay park now owned by former vice captain Barry Creighton. If he gets to go in the near future, it is likely to be as hot as his form.

Bryan Simpson continues to prove that you don't have to hit it miles to put a competitive score on the board. The wily Veteran completed a polished round to win the runner up trophy, scoring 39 points.

Scores were not as high as normal in the 52 man field with 37 points enough to make the top three. Michael Daley and Simone Boccia were tied on that score. Ed Riley, Rob Cavanagh, Steve Farquhar, Jim Larsen, Geoff Lee, Keith Russell and Wayne Waywood were all rewarded for their 35 points apiece.

Bev Moyses won the Associates event with 36 points from Shelley Barker-May and Betty White on 35 points. Nearest the pins were won by Ray Cooper, Wayne Waywood and Simon Purse. Long Putts went to Jim Moyses and John Kenna. Graham Williams surprised many people, including himself, to win the long drive.

Jim Hine was a clear winner of the Scroungers event last Thursday. Hine returned 22 points to win from fellow Veterans, David Brunswick and Phil Warburton. That gentlemanly pair along with Mike Daley, who had the best gross, all had 20 points each. Fred Bronickis and George Davis completed the 'senior' dominance with 19 points. Ron Annandale, Fred Bronickis and Dick Earl won the novelties.

Brian Banks scored a well deserved victory in the 14 hole Veterans competition last week with 32 points. Peter Gray took second spot for the second week running on 30 points, followed by Des Hebb on 29 points and Ed Riley on 28 points.

Boyup Brook member Simone Boccia has been very consistent of late. Boccia managed a healthy 39 points to claim victory in the Leisure Day competition last week. Phil Eldridge was next best in a small field with 35 points.

Sunday Scroungers stalwart, Joe Italiano was one of half a dozen golfing diehards to tackle the heat to get 9 holes in last week. Italiano came out on top with 20 points to win from Phil Warburton with 19 points. Graham Williams and Des Hebb were next on 18 points.

Scroungers will be on as normal today. Saturday is an 18 Hole Fourball Stableford event for the Collie Outdoor World trophies. Associates will play an individual Stableford. Sunday Scroungers will also be on

On Tuesday, Australia Day, a timesheet will operate for an 18 Hole Trophy event for all members in place of the usual Leisure Day and Veterans competitions.
