

GRAY AND RILEY SHOW 'TICKER' IN FOURBALL WIN

Peter Gray and Ed Riley teamed perfectly to win the Outdoor World Fourball Stableford competition held at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. The duo showed all of their experience and skill, after a slow start, to tally 49 points, and in so doing, set the afternoon players a serious target to run down. Gray, in particular, was very pleased with the victory after battling back from heart surgery over the last few months.

Des Hebb and Neil McDonald were perfectly placed to challenge for the trophy after a stunning first nine of 29 points. Fate was against them, however, with a lost ball on their last hole killing off their hopes of 50 points. The unlucky pair settled for 48 points and second place on a count back from the consistent pairing of Eric Annandale and Brian Banks.

Leon Moran and Ron Crabbe were easily the lowest gross card in with 68 off the stick. They returned 46 points along with Brad Swan and Rodney Miller. Ray Cooper and Joe Italiano matched Mark Sugget and Darren Morfitt on 45 points each followed by Clayton Flynn and Jan Van Vollenstee, Jim Moyses and Stephen Farquhar, and John Kenna and Simon Purse. Jim Hine and Alan Banks, David Brunswick and Tony Barker-May and Chris and Ash Stewart all had 44 points.

Jill Burgess won the Associates event with 41 points from Betty White on 40 points and Bev Moyses on 38 points. Nearest the pins were won by Deb Van Vollenstee, Stephen Farquhar and Bev Moyses. Long Putts went to Ray Alp and Leon Moran. Jaydon Ellery won the long drive.

Alan Kent was the winner of the Scroungers event last Thursday. AK returned 21 points to win from Des Hebb, Steve Farquhar, Dean Crowe and Dennis Cocker on 20 points. Mike Daley, Hugh Annandale and Fred Bronickis were next on 19 points each. Jim Hine, Phil Warburton and Ernie Sullivan won the novelties. Judy Italiano won the Associates prize with 19 points.

Phil Warburton showed a liking for Par, scoring 4 up for a clear cut victory in the 14 hole Veterans competition last week. George Davis took second spot on 2 up followed by Neil McDonald and Eric Annandale with 1 up.

Trevor Lawrence and Geoff Lee had matching scores of 38 points in the Leisure Day competition last week. 'Trizzie' gained the major portion of the chop up, by virtue of a count back. Ray Cooper was next best with 35 points.

Rob Cavanagh put an excellent 9 holes together, amassing 24 points to win the Sunday Scroungers event. The winner had plenty to spare from the trio of Joe Italiano and Shelley and Tony Barker-May on 17 points each.

Scroungers will be on as normal today. Saturday is an 18 Hole Par event for the Auswop group trophies. The sponsors will have a few extra novelties on offer and stayers prizes for those in the clubhouse at presentations. Sunday Scroungers will continue as well.
