

WALSH WINS STABLEFORD EVENT

Veteran Peter Walsh played an excellent round of golf to win the Henderson Hardware Trophy, sponsored by Ash and Bec Stewart.

Walsh returned 41 Stableford points to be the best player in a good field of 79 players.

In form local doc, Jan Van Vollenstee again produced quality golf to claim the runner up trophy. His score of 40 points was also attained by Trevor McCormick who took out third place. Next on 38 points were Alan Kent, Jed Casserley, Jim Hine and Ray Cooper followed on 37 points by Ken Tate, Ernie Sullivan, Eric Annandale and Matt Harker. Rounding out the vouchers on 36 points were Joe Italiano, Dave Brunswick, Rod Miller, Phil Warburton, Ross Brody and Rob Sherwood.

Eileen Riley backed up her previous week's success by winning the women's section with 37 points on count back from Michelle Tate.

Nearest the pin novelties were won by Phil Warburton (No.4), Neil McDonald (No.7) and Vicki Graham (No. 14). Longest putts went to Ed Riley (No. 6) and Ryan Dye (No.18) while the long drive on No. 15 was won by Mark Sugget.

Bruce Miller won last Thursday's Scroungers Competition with an impressive 23 points, turning the tables on Ray Cooper who was runner up on 22 points. Lou Lukowiak was outright third on 21 points while Frank Battista, Peter Gray, Rob Cavanaugh and Alan Banks had 20 points with Ed Riley and Jim Hine each on 19 points. Rodney Simmonds, Brad Swan and Bruce Miller won the novelties while Greg Bell won the gross.

Alan Kent was the best Veteran, scoring 31 points in the 14 hole Veterans Competition last week. Next best were Peter Walsh on 29 points, Brian Simpson on 28 points, Frank Battista on 27 points and Dave Brunswick on 26 points. Novelties were won by Des Hebb, Alan Kent, Neil McDonald and Ed Riley.

Brad Jones backed up his recent Saturday success with an incredible 49 Stableford points to take out the Leisure Day event last Tuesday. Jones played stellar golf, including an eagle on No.8. As expected, the handicapper took a keen interest in the result, slashing his handicap by 5 strokes. Steven Ireland, Dennis Cocker and Greg Bell each had 37 points.

There wasn't any Sunday Scroungers competition last Sunday but it will resume again this week. A Mulligan competition (including extra novelties) will take place in today's Scroungers competition.

Saturday is an 18 hole Stableford event sponsored by Bunbury Honda. There is a new look time sheet commencing this week. All players are asked to please adhere to the times shown when hitting off.

Leisure Day and Veterans will be played as usual next Tuesday.
