

TATE CANES PRINCIPAL'S DAY

Likeable leftie, Ken Tate, finished at the top of the class in the Primary Principal's Stableford event held at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. 'Tatey' relished the morning conditions, and a form reversal, to post 44 points for a deserved victory in the field of 55 players.

Boyup Brook player, Simon Purse, turned in 43 points, after an elegant 79 off the stick, to take the runner up trophy. Purse and Tate had a clear margin over the rest.

Trevor Lawrence was on track to challenge the leaders, turning one under the card, but 'tired' over the concluding holes to finish with 39 points. 'Trizzy's 25 points on the back nine clinched him third place on count back over Phil Warburton and Peter Ellery.

Ryan Dye maintained his Riverside form to be next on 38 points, along with Mark Sugget and John Wray. That trio was followed by Ron Annandale, Neil Motion and Ray Alp on 37 points. All on 36 points were rewarded. Those players included Alan Banks, George Davis, Brad Jones, Jim Moses, Ed Riley and Paul Woolstencroft.

Bev Moses was rewarded for her commitment to summer golf with a win in the Associates event. Moses returned 37 points to be the winner over Nancy Lynn on 36 points.

Nearest the pins were won by Betty White and Phil Warburton. Ron Annandale picked up novelties on two holes. A long Putt went to Ed Riley and Ian Stewart took the long drive.

Jim Moses made it a family double for the week with a win in the Scroungers competition last Thursday. Moses tallied 22 points for a victory over Ray Alp, Dave Brunswick and Bruce Roberts on 20 points apiece.

Mark Sugget finished fourth with 19 points followed by Chris Shea, Denis Cocker and Bryan Simpson, who all scored 18 points.

Helen Annandale had the best Associates card with 20 points.

Jay Robinson, Hugh Annandale and Bruce Roberts won the novelties.

Bryan Simpson, Des Hebb and Alan Kent tied with 29 points in the 14 hole Veterans competition last week. Simpson took the major share of the awards on a spin. Jeff Crowe made up the top four with 28 points.

Extra goodies in the form of novelties and competition prizes will be on offer for the summer closing Scroungers event today.

On Easter Saturday there will be an 18 Hole Stableford event for club trophies. The book will be out for Sunday Scroungers and a sweepstakes event on Monday.

Leisure Day and Veterans will be played as usual on Tuesday.
