

VAN VOLLENSTEE DOUBLE

In near perfect golfing conditions, Jan Van Vollenstee won the men's section while his wife, Debbie, won the women's section in the 18 hole par event sponsored by Bunbury Machinery last Saturday.

In the field of 62 players, Van Vollenstee had a stellar day, finishing with +7 over Trizzie Lawrence who also played a great round to finish on +5. Club captain, Dean Rakich finished in third place with +4 by virtue of a countback over Peter Gray on the same score. Ken Smallwood, Norm Oates, Michael Stocks and Darren Morfitt each finished 3 up while Chris Stewart, Hugh Annandale, Greg Hales, Alan Savage, Steve Farquhar and Eric Annandale each had +2. Rounding out the vouchers, each with +1 were Joe Italiano, John Kenna, Jim Lee, Greg Moyle, Ross Brody, Graham Williams and Ian Purse.

Debbie Van Vollenstee finished with -1 to take out the trophy in the ladies section.

Bunbury Machinery sponsored five of the six novelty holes, with Collie Salvage sponsoring No. 6 as usual. Mike Daley, on return from a brief spell over east, won the long putt on six and was jubilant to find that he had won the NAGA for the day as well. The other long putt on 18 was won by Peter Walsh, the long drive on 15 went to Michael Stocks while nearest the pins were won by Dean Rakich (4), Ray Cooper (7) and Jan Van Vollenstee (14).

***

Bruce Miller blitzed the field in the Scroungers' Competition last Thursday with an amazing 26 points. He finished 3 points ahead of Michael Stocks and Greg White, each of them scoring 23 points. Next came Ray Cooper with 22 points, followed by Ian Annandale, Ian Shannon, Steve Farquhar and Mike Daley, each on 21 points. Daley had the best gross score with 38 points off the stick.

June Pike was the leading ladies Scrounger with 19 points over Helen Annandale on the same score.

Novelties were won by Rodney Simmonds (4), Dick Earl (6) and Jim Moyses (9).

***

Hugh Annandale won the 14 hole Veterans' Competition with 31 points last Tuesday. In second place was John Wray with 30 points followed by Dave Brunswick on 29 points while Eric Annandale and Harry Hadfield both had 28 points.

Novelties were won by Frank Battista (4), Peter Gray (6), Bryan Simpson (9) and Brian Banks (18).

***

Greg Moyle was back to his best, winning the Leisure Day Competition with 42 points last Tuesday. In second place, also with a good score of 40 points was Denis Cocker while Clayton Flynn and Chris Shea each finished with 38 points apiece.

Golf Notes for the week ending Sunday 25 April 2010

DIGGERS' DAY

The annual ANZAC Diggers' Day Trophy, sponsored by John and Barbara Wray was held on the Monday Anzac public holiday.

In a very good field of 53 members and 10 Associates, Hugh Annandale won the Diggers section with the good score of 40 points. Upon accepting his trophy, Hugh paid tribute to the Anzacs and to John and Barbara Wray for their ongoing support and sponsorship of the day. Jim Moyses finished second in the Diggers section with 38 points and Dave Brunswick was third with 36 points.

The non Diggers section was won by up and coming junior, Ryan Dye, who played good golf to finish on 40 points and claim the 'Others' trophy. Runner up to Ryan was Bill Silverman, also on 40 points. Next came Brian Banks and Mick Finlay on 39 points, followed by Ken Tate, Ron Annandale, Leon Moran, George Davis and Robert Sherwood on 38 points. Rounding out the vouchers on 37 points were Dean Rakich and Wayne Waywood.

Gwen Tanian compiled 41 Stableford points to win the trophy in the ladies section. Runner up with 39 points was Shelley Barker-May and in third place on 37 points was Helen Annandale.

Novelties: Nearest the Pin – Ron Crabbe (4), John Wray (7), Frank Battista (14). Longest first Putt – Ron Annandale (6), Trizzie Lawrence (18). Nearest third (Diggers) Hugh Annandale and long drive (15) Simon Boccia.

*******

Next Saturday is an 18 hole Stableford competition, sponsored by Collie Salvage, marking the start of the winter season. There will not be any morning slots on the time sheet.

Scroungers today as usual with Vets and Leisure Days next Tuesday.