

FREIGHTLINES TROPHY TO BARKER-MAY

Tony Barker-May took nett honours in the first round of the club championships to win the Collie Freightlines Trophy donated by John Bell. Barker-May has been playing good, steady golf in recent weeks and again produced a fine display in the 70 man field to win the stroke event with a nett score of 66. In a three way tie for second, Chris Connell played his best golf to date to finish runner up on 67, with Dean Rakich and John Kenna also on the same score. Another three players in Peter Gray, Leon Moran and George Davis played well to each finish on 68. Trizzie Lawrence was next with 69 nett, followed by Greg Martin and Phil Eldridge on 70, then came Greg Moyle, Frank Battista and Fred Bronickis on 71.

In the alternative Stableford event, held in conjunction with the club championship, Keith Russell was the winner with 39 points over Rod Simmonds and Paul Woolstencroft, each with 37 points.

Novelties were won by Chris Connell (4), Mick Finlay (6), Des Hebb (7), Greg Moyle (14), Paul Woolstencroft (15) and Ian Tweedie (18).

*******

Brian Banks was the run away winner in the Scroungers competition last Thursday, amassing 25 points over the 9 holes. Jim Moyses ran second with his 22 Stableford points, with a host of players on 21 points including George Dorozenko, Kevin Ireland, Darren Morfitt, Ron Annandale and Tony Barker-May. Completing the top scores with 20 points each were Jim Hine, Ian Shannon and president, Steven Ireland.

Ron Annandale recorded the best gross score with 16 points while the winning Associates' Scrounger was Helen Annandale with 20 Stableford points.

Novelties were won by Ray McGill (4), David Broadbent (6) and Jim Hine (9).

*******

The 14 hole Veterans' competition was comfortably won by Jim Hine with a total of 31 points last Tuesday. In second place with 28 points was John Wray, while Alan Kent and Bryan Simpson each achieved 27 points.

Novelties went to John Wray (4), Alan Kent (6), Peter Gray (9) and Dave Brunswick (18).

*******

Geoff Lee was Tuesday's Leisure Day winner with 34 Stableford points.

*******

This Saturday is the 18 hole multiple format pairs competition, sponsored by Ken Smallwood. Scroungers today with Vets and Leisure Day next Tuesday.

*******

A reminder to check your cards at the completion of play for the Eclectic Competition now under way, as is the Five Point Award.