

ANNANDALE WINS AT BOYUP BROOK

Due to the South West Women's Championship played on the Collie Golf Course last weekend, there was no men's competition last Saturday. A small group of players travelled to Boyup Brook for the day and Eric Annandale with 39 Stableford points was the best of the Collie players. He finished 1 point behind the eventual winner, so well done Eric.

*******

A good field of 56 players took part in last Thursday's Scroungers competition. Winning the day with 22 points was the in form Hugh Annandale. Next, on 21 points apiece were newcomer Andrew Shea and our green keeper, Darren Morfitt. Jim Moyses, Jeff Crowe and Clive Pullan all played well to register 20 points each while Jim Hine, Ed Riley and Dave Brunswick rounded out the vouchers with 19 points each.

Novelties went to Andrew Shea (4), Harry Hadfield (6) and Lou Lukowiak (9).

*******

Ed Riley won last Tuesday's Vets competition, scoring 32 points to be 2 points clear of Ernie Sullivan, Jim Hine and Brian Banks, each on 30 points.

Novelties were won by Peter Walsh (4), Alan Kent (6), George Davis (9) and Alan Banks (18).

*******

Leisure Day's competition, also held last Tuesday, was won by Denis Cocker with 39 Stableford points from Chris Shea on 38 points.

*******

This Saturday will return to normal mens competition with an 18 hole par event sponsored by the Premier Hotel. Scroungers today with Vets and Leisure Days next Tuesday.