

HARKER AND WOODS WIN ON 'EAGLES' DAY

Mat Harker and Ken Woods produced a two under par round of 70 to win the Collie Eagles Football Club Ambrose event at the Collie Golf Club last Saturday. Woods, who has been out of the winners circle for some time, had the perfect foil, in his accomplished son in law, Harker, to post a nett score of 62¾ and taste success in what can be a challenging game.

Jim Moyses and Steve Farquhar again combined effectively to take the runner up award with a score of 63½. In third place were Tony Barker-May and Dave Brunswick on 64¾.

Others in the top placed pairings included Ken Smallwood and Joe Italiano (65¾), Steven Ireland and Dean Rakich (66¾), Alan Kent and Ed Riley (67), Ron Annandale and Len Hennighan (67½), and finally the pairs of Ian Stewart and Clive Pullan along with Phil Warburton and Clayton Flynn on 68.

Nearest the Pins were won by Len Hennighan, Joe Italiano and Alan Kent. Long Putts went to Ian Stewart and Bryan Simpson. Clive Pullan and Jan Van Vollenstee won the long drives, while Tony Barker-May and Joe Italiano picked up bonus prizes for themselves and their partner with excellent chips.

Ross Brody was the best of the few who tackled the wet conditions, scoring 17 points to win Scroungers last week. Brody was followed by Jeff Crowe on 15 points and Neil McDonald with 14 points.

Neil McDonald kept his steady form going when he took top spot in the Veterans competition with 30 points. He had one to spare from Jeff Crowe on 29 points followed by Brian Banks with 26 points.

Chris Shea picked up yet another top placing, winning the Leisure Day event with 37 points. Brad Jones was next with 36 points.
