

JONES WINS STROKE EVENT

Brad Jones won the third round of the Club Championship Stroke Event, sponsored by the Golden Bowl Restaurant (Danny Cheng, together with David Laird) last Saturday.

In fine weather conditions, Jones shot a stylish nett score of 68 to be one stroke clear of runner up Ian Annandale who played solid golf, finishing on 69 nett.

In third place, on 70 nett was Dave Brunswick while Peter Gray finished on 71 nett to take out fourth placing. Finishing on 73 nett were Brad Swan, Chris Bliss, Troy Sheppard, Ross Brody and Dave Czerniawsky while Ed Riley, Danny Cheng and Frank Battista each finished with 74 nett.

Alan Banks had the best score of 34 points in the small field alternative Stableford event.

Leon Moran produced another great round to win the gross trophy with the good score of 78 off the stick.

Novelty winners for the day were Nearest To Pin Danny Cheng (No.4), Peter Gray (No. 7), Des Hebb (No.14); Longest First Putt Chris Stewart (No.6), Brad Swan (No. 18); & Long Drive on No.15 to Graham Williams.

In a relatively low scoring Scroungers' competition last Thursday, Greg Martin took first place honours with 19 points by virtue of a spin over Greg White and Mick Finlay who each had 19 points as well. Phil Warburton and Brian Banks were next on 18 points while Dave Henderson, Bruce Miller and Graham Williams each had 17 points.

Novelties were won by Eric Annandale (No.4) and Phil Warburton (No.9). Warby also won the gross with 13 points while Betty White, with 19 points had the best Associates' score (on a spin).

Peter Gray won the Veterans competition last Tuesday with 28 Stableford points. He won from Bryan Simpson on 27 points and Ross Brody on 26 points. Novelties were won by Brian Banks (No.4), Dave Brunswick (No6), Des Hebb (No9) and Ray Alp (No18).

In a small Leisure Day field, Dave Czerniawsky played excellent golf to be the winner with 41 points over Greg Martin on 37 points.

Scroungers today will be dedicated to the memory of Dick Earl. A highly respected and keen golfer, Dick enjoyed many pleasurable hours on the golf course in the company of club members. Trophies and bar tucker will be on offer after play.

This Saturday will be a par event sponsored by P & H, and on Sunday the trip to Boyup Brook Golf Club.

Leisure Day and Veterans are on next Tuesday. Nominations are now open prior to the AGM on Aug 29th and members should now consider organising teams of 4 for the Holden Scramble to be held in September.
